

IRS Moves Back Furnishing Deadlines for Forms 1095-C and 1095-B

The IRS has moved back the deadline by which employers must furnish Forms 1095-C and 1095-B from January 31 to March 4. As required by ACA reporting regulations, these forms are used by insurers, self-insuring employers and other parties that provide minimum essential health coverage to report out to covered individuals information about the health care coverage they have offered in a calendar year.

As a result of the deadline extension:

- Employers with 50 or more full-time employees (including full-time equivalent employees) generally must furnish a Form 1095-C to all full-time employees no later than March 4, 2019.
- Self-insured employers with fewer than 50 full-time employees (including full-time equivalent employees) generally must furnish a Form 1095-B to all responsible individuals – typically the primary insured, an employee or former employee, or other related person named on the application for insurance – no later than March 4, 2019.

The deadline for employers to file all Forms 1094 and 1095 with the IRS remains February 28, 2019 (or April 1, 2019, if filing electronically).
